

Who this form is for

You should complete this form to let Standard Life know how you would like your death benefits to be paid. Instructions in relation to death benefits can have tax consequences. You should consult your legal and/or financial adviser if you are in any doubt as to the tax implications of your instructions, how to complete this form and/or what instructions to provide. Any reference in this form to 'Standard Life' means Phoenix Life Limited, trading as Standard Life. Phoenix Life Limited is the provider and scheme administrator of the Standard Life Self Invested Personal Pension Scheme.

How death benefits are taxed

Death benefits from pension plans are not normally liable to inheritance tax.

If you die before age 75, your beneficiaries will not normally have to pay income tax on any benefits they receive. However, your beneficiaries may be liable to income tax on any lump sums in excess of your lump sum and death benefit allowance.

If you die on or after age 75, then any benefits paid to your beneficiaries will normally be subject to income tax.

For further information on tax charges please read our guide to death benefits SLSIP11 or 'Information about tax relief, limits and your pension' GEN658.

Tax rules and legislation can change. Any information given is based on our understanding of law and current HM Revenue & Customs practice as at April 2024. The information provided here should not be regarded as financial advice. If you are unsure you should speak to a financial adviser. There's likely to be a cost for this.

Part 2 – How to complete this form

If you die with money still invested in your Self Invested Personal Pension Scheme, the remaining fund can be paid out to provide death benefits to your beneficiaries.

Are your instructions binding?

Normally, any instruction you give us in Part 3 about who to pay the death benefit to is only an 'expression of wish' and is not binding. This means that the scheme administrator will decide who should receive the death benefit, taking into account all relevant matters, including your expression of wish.

But if you name the Standard Life Bypass Trust in Part 3b, you can make that instruction binding on the scheme administrator by ticking the 'Yes' box in question 2 of Part 3b on page 6. This doesn't stop you from changing your instructions in the future.

Options for a beneficiary

Once the scheme administrator has chosen a beneficiary (or beneficiaries) they can choose how to take benefits from their share of your pension plan.

Possible options are –

- Take a lump sum
- Take an annuity (guaranteed income for life)
- Withdraw flexible income (drawdown), and if they wish, buy an annuity later.

Depending on the option chosen the beneficiary may need to transfer their share of your plan to another product or provider. For further information on the options available please read our guide to death benefits SLSIP11.

Part 3 – Payment of death benefits

Please give details of anyone you would like to receive benefits when you die.

- If you wish to name one or more individuals, complete Part 3a

If you name more than one person, trust or charity, please indicate the percentage of the lump sum you wish each to receive. If you wish to name more recipients than this form has space for, please photocopy this page, complete the relevant details and then attach it to this form.

Making a binding direction

1. Is the trust you've named your Standard Life Bypass Trust? Yes No
 If 'Yes', answer question 2. If 'No', go to Part 3c if you wish to name a Charity to receive a lump sum (or go straight to Part 4 if you do not wish to nominate a Charity).

2. Do you want your instruction in Part 3b to be binding on the scheme administrator? Yes No
 If 'Yes', the scheme administrator must pay the percentage of the lump sum death benefit given in Part 3b to the Standard Life Bypass Trust named in Part 3b. But you can still change your instructions in the future.
 If 'No', the scheme administrator will take account of your wishes and consider your Standard Life Bypass Trust as a potential beneficiary.

We only need the names of the Authorised Signatories if your trust has a corporate trustee.

 If you are considering leaving the UK and becoming tax resident in another country, you should speak to your adviser about the tax effect of a binding revocable direction.

All the percentages in Parts 3a to 3c must add up to 100%.

Part 3d – Further information on your wishes

Please give any extra information you think will help us better understand who you would like to benefit from your pension on your death.

Examples

1. Before awarding any death benefits please liaise with my named beneficiaries (and/or their advisers) to establish how best to use any remaining funds to meet their needs tax efficiently. The benefit allocations given above are purely indicative (apart from the binding nomination to a trust).
2. My primary concern is that my spouse is adequately provided for from my pension on my death. After this, any remaining pension pot should be awarded to my other beneficiaries named above. To this end, in the event of my death, please liaise with my named beneficiaries to establish their needs and the best way of meeting them.

Although the scheme administrator will take your wishes into consideration, including any information you give here, we must consider all your circumstances before deciding who to pay the death benefits to. This form does not bind the scheme administrator, apart from any binding nomination you make to a Standard Life Bypass Trust.
